SNAIL General Meeting Thursday – July 5th

This month, our neighborhood resource officer, Jim Davis, will tell us about how to start a Neighborhood Watch program. School is out, so we cannot meet in our usual place. Bring a chair.

Location: Vincente & Silvia Silveira's
551 Morse 901-0248
Social Time: 6:45 - 7:00 p.m.
Meeting Time: 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

All SNAIL area homeowners, residents and guests are invited. Children are welcome.

Bargains galore at the SNAIL Yard Sale, June 9th.

Message from the Chair

SNAIL is a great way to get to know people within walking distance of your home. Our social events are designed primarily to get residents within the area generally surrounding Columbia School to connect. I've made friends with scores of people since joining SNAIL.

In addition to SNAIL events, you are also encouraged to get out and meet your immediate neighbors. The easiest way to approach a neighbor you haven't met yet is to catch them while they're doing their yard work. If you rarely see them outside, ring their doorbell and introduce yourself!

Sunnyvale Public Safety has asked us to watch out for the well-being of our neighbors. They have asked us not to hesitate to call "911" if we notice anything that appears to be suspicious or "not quite right".

For those who believe that getting to know their neighbors is something that can be put off for another day, consider this: The City has warned us many times that, in the event of a major earthquake, we shouldn't expect public services for about 72 hours. If your loved ones are injured and you're not at home to help them, who will? Who will go check on them? At least give that some thought, then go and say "hello" to your neighbors!

SNAIL Dinner Night Out

Monthly Dinner's to support Sunnyvale Restaurants has been temporarily discontinued. Such events will resume sometime in the fall or should someone offer to take on the organizational responsibility.

Bay Meadows Joy

The Palo Alto Times indicates there may be a 2008 racing season. Replacing the running surface with 8 million dollars worth of a safer material may be put off for another year. Snail's September 28th event has suffered cancellations so there are openings. Call Jeannie at 734-0739.

Mary Avenue Extension

The City is planning construction of a bridge from Mary /Almanor, over Highways 101 & 237, to the Lockheed area to handle increased traffic to the planned "Moffett Towers". There will be a series of information forums July 5, 10, 12, & 17. For more information call Jack Witthaus, Sunnyvale Transportation and Traffic Manager, 730-7415.

New Neighborhood Organization

Sunnyvale has another neighborhood group, Sunnyvale West, bounded by Mary, Homestead, and Maude Avenues, and the Sunnyvale-Saratoga Road. The organization has formed to support area home owners faced by the Mary / Moffett development project.

Music and Dancing

On Murphy Avenue in downtown Sunnyvale.
The festivities begin at 6: 00 p.m.

July 11th	The Hitmen
July 11th	Wiseguys

Dumpster Day Thanks

Thank you everyone for helping SNAILS reduce waste headed for the land fill at our June dumpster day and yard sale. Slightly over $1200 was deposited to the SNAIL account. Everyone had fun and I am sure many went home weary and feeling thoroughly exercised. We also had two long term advertisers renew their contracts. A good month of our coiffeurs.
